BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE FOUNDATIONS OF NATIONS AND GOVERNMENTS: Levels 1-6

Please note the description of the Level One course below

Five-day course examining the types and conditions of nations and governments from a Biblical presentation rather than a sociological one.

Designed to challenge the Christian with truths about the foundation stones that make up a nation and governments. An invaluable tool for all types of leaders, and any Christian determined to be effective in ministering to nations and in governments for fruitful relationship and productive lives. The stereotypical strongholds that have bound each national values system, conscience, spiritual conditions, work ethics, economic system, governmental structure and more are exposed.

Some of the messages that may be covered: Boundaries affecting Nations and government; Understanding the New Birth in Relationship to the Nations; Foundations; Work Ethics of the Nations; Belief Systems of the Nations and Government structures; Biblical Strategies for Leaders and Politics; Global Perspectives of the Movement of God in Nations and government leaders; Be Demonized?; And more...
